

2023 survey on camping plans German campers

Are you curious about where German campers want to go on holiday in 2023? ACSI conducted a survey on the German campers' holiday plans for 2023. We present the results to you now.

For this survey, we asked more than 3,000 German campers about their plans. We approached them through ACSI's European websites and newsletters. Campers could take part between 9 February to 23 February.

Average number of camping holidays in 2023

German campers who usually go camping with (grand) children plan to go camping an average of four times in 2023. They will go on camping holiday for a total of 35 days. Campers who usually go camping in a different composition plan to go camping about four times a year. They will do so spread over 60 days, which is more than in 2021 and 2022. An upward trend can be seen here.

These countries are popular

Popular destinations among German campers in 2023 are still Germany, Italy and France. While campers tended to stay in their own home country in 2021 and 2022, we see in 2023 that people are basically returning to their old pattern and going abroad again. This applies to campers without children as well as campers with children. Denmark and Spain are becoming increasingly popular as a destination among German campers.

3.204 respondents

40% have their own caravan

58% have their own motorhome

How often are you planning to go camping in 2023?

Campers without children

Campers with children

How many days in total are you planning to spend on a camping holiday?

2021

Campers without children

Campers with children

2022

Campers without children

Campers with children

2023

Campers without children

Campers with children

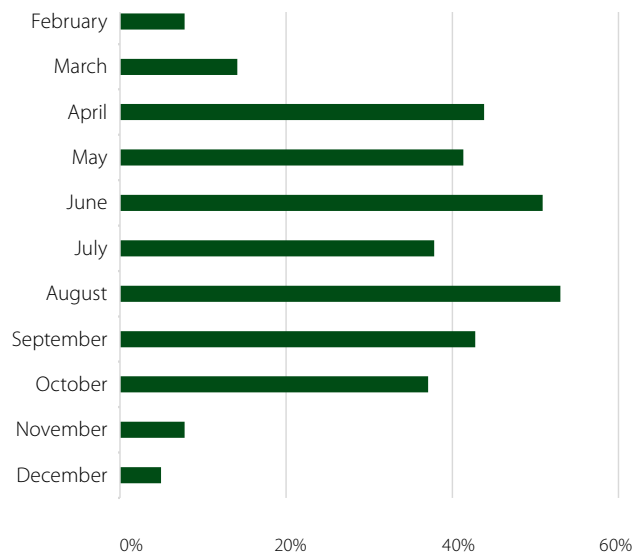

When do you plan to take a camping holiday in 2023?

Campers without children

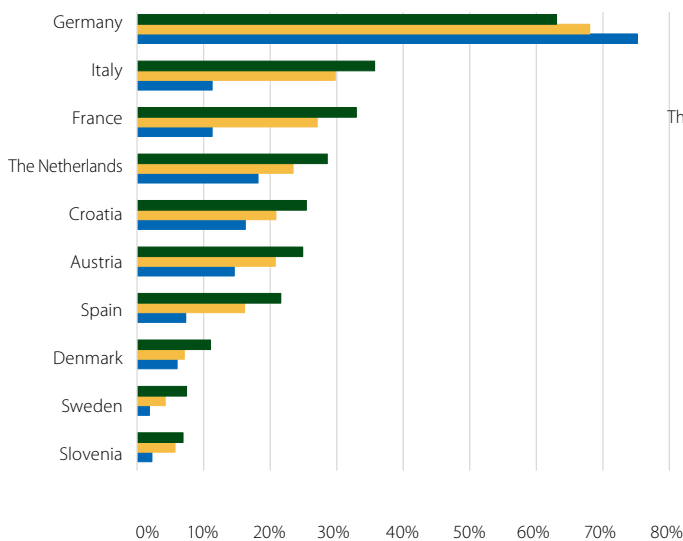

Campers with children

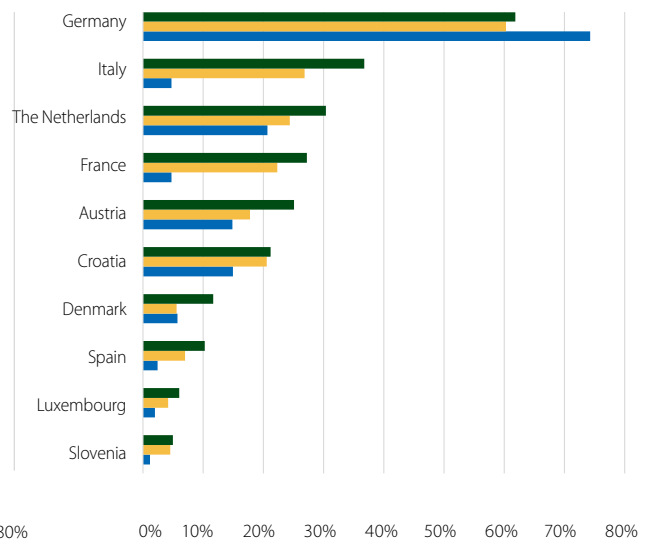

Where are you planning to take a camping holiday?

Campers without children

Campers with children

* For information about European countries not listed here, please contact our Sales department via sales@acsi.eu.